

Are you a keen musician? Are you missing being able to perform? If you've got the equipment you need at home, why not give your friends and fans a concert experience streamed direct to their living rooms?

Living Room Gig

Here's what to do:

1. Plan the logistics

- When will it be?
- Are you going to charge people to attend, or just encourage them to donate throughout the gig?
- How long will it be?
- What's your setlist?
- What platform are you going to use to host your gig? There are many video streaming platforms – Instagram Live and Facebook Live are both popular; other options include Google Hangouts and Zoom.

2. Set up a Virgin Money Giving page linked to our Coronavirus Resilience Appeal for viewers to donate to.

We're challenging you to set a fundraising target of £150 overall.

3. Promote what you are doing far and wide!

- We've written a few template posts below if you're stuck. Remember, lots of your peers and friends will be looking for ways to fill their evenings and this could be just what they're looking for.
- You should, however, be sensitive to the fact that some people will have financial concerns at the moment and won't be able to donate.
- Don't forget to add a link to your donation page and the link to the platform you'll be using to stream.

4. Enjoy!

Above all this is meant to be a chance to have fun and bring people together - so make sure to not get stressed out, and just enjoy it.

5. Let us know how it went

We'd love to hear about your event, so please email fundraising@studentminds.org.uk to let us know! If you get any pictures (or screenshots!) we'd love to see them.

On [Sunday 12th – Monday 13th April] I will be doing an online gig in aid of Student Minds, starting at [8pm GMT]! Student Minds empowers students and members of the university community to look after their own mental health, support those around them and create change. I've chosen to support them because [it's a cause that's close to my heart and with many of their fundraising events being cancelled recently, I'm particularly keen to help them].

If you're looking for things to do, please come along and watch me play! I'll be streaming it on Instagram Live at [link] and you can make a donation at [virginmoneygiving.org.uk/myfundraiser]. I'm aiming to raise at least £150 and I would be extremely grateful for any donations you are able to give.

Thank you!
