Virtual Quiz

Here's what to do:

1. Plan out the logistics

- Are you going to invite people to take part as individuals or teams?
- Teams could either be those who live together taking on the challenge together, or distant friends joining together via video chat (you'll have to share the questions via an app if you go for this option).
- Do you plan on holding a quiz every week or will it be a one-off?
- Think about how much you will charge.
- You could set a flat entry fee, or invite people to donate what they can afford.
- If your friends are all working from home, why not challenge them to donate the cost of their commute for that day – or if they're feeling really generous, that week?

2. Write out your list of questions.

If you're lacking inspiration, we've put a few questions to get you started together below!

3. Choose what website or app you're going to use to host your quiz.

- Kahoot! is a popular quizzing app, which can be downloaded by all users as an app on their phone.
- When you set up your quiz, you'll be assigned a quiz code so you'll need to work out how you'll send it out to participants.
- Users score higher for speed, meaning cheating won't be rewarded.
- Alternatively, you can take out the middleman and simply read out the questions over a video call.
- Think about which platform you will use – Google Hangouts, Facebook Messenger and Zoom are just a few of the options!

4. Set up a Virgin Money Giving page linked to our Coronavirus Resilience Appeal for participants to donate their entry fee to.

We're challenging you to set a fundraising target of £150 overall. If this seems a bit daunting, it could be achieved through multiple challenges!

5. Promote what you are doing far and wide!

- We've written a few template posts below if you're stuck.
- Remember, lots of your peers and friends will be looking for ways to fill their evenings and this could be just what they're looking for.
- On the other hand, do be sensitive to the fact that some people may be in a difficult financial position at the moment and might not be able to donate.
- Don't forget to add a link to your donation page and, if you'll be asking participants to dial in via video call, the link to this.

6. Enjoy!

Above all this is meant to be a chance to have fun and bring people together!

7. Let us know how it went

We'd love to hear about your event, so please email fundraising@studentminds.org.uk or use the hashtag #TeamStudentMinds on social media to let us know how it went. We'll share our favourite stories on our platforms!

Facebook Post

On [Sunday 12th April] I will be hosting a Virtual Quiz in aid of Student Minds! Student Minds empowers students and members of the university community to look after their own mental health, support those around them and create change. I've chosen to support them because [it's a cause that's close to my heart and with many of their fundraising events being cancelled recently, I'm particularly keen to support them].

If you're looking for things to do in the evenings, please get involved! Entry is [£5] which will all go to Student Minds. All you need to do to sign up is donate [£5] at [virginmoneygiving.org.uk/myfundraiser]. The quiz will be hosted on [Kahoot!] – you will need to download the app to take part and I'll post the quiz pin code on my fundraising page on the day. I would really love to get as many of you as possible involved!

Thank you!
